is sponsoring a

Violin/Viola Master Class with
Martin Chalifour

Monday, January 16, 2012
10:00 A.M. - 12:00 P.M.

Chapman University, Orange, CA
 Choral Room (inside Berteau Hall, off of Palm Av.)

MARTIN CHALIFOUR has been the Principal Concertmaster of the Los Angeles Philharmonic since 1995.

In 1986 he received a Certificate of Honor at the Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow; he was a laureate of the Montreal International Competition the following year. Since then he has concertized extensively, playing hundreds of concerto performances. He has appeared as soloist with conductors such as Pierre Boulez, Charles Dutoit, Christoph Eschenbach, Sir Neville Marriner, and Esa-Pekka Salonen. Outside the U.S., he has appeared as a guest soloist with the Auckland Philharmonia, the Montreal Symphony, the Hong Kong Philharmonic, and the National Orchestra of Taiwan, among others.

Chalifour began his orchestral career in 1984 with the Atlanta Symphony, playing as Associate Concertmaster for six years. Subsequently he occupied the same position for five years in the Cleveland Orchestra, where he also served as Acting Concertmaster under Christoph von Dohnányi. While in Cleveland, Chalifour taught at the Cleveland Institute of Music and was a founding member of two chamber ensembles, Myriad and the Cleveland Orchestra Piano Trio.

Martin Chalifour is a professor at the University of Southern California's Thornton School of Music. He records for the Yarlung label.
